

SOS CHILDREN'S VILLAGES

A loving home for every child

16 December 2010

Dear

Acutus

Acutus' continued generous support for SOS Children is so valuable to us – thank you for once again donating £10,000 for our work in Gambia, this Christmas.

You will recall that last year, your £10,000 donation contributed to the education of children who attend the SOS Primary School at Basse Children's Village.

We remain committed to meeting the educational needs of children in Basse in the Upper River Division of Gambia (shown on the map) where many families are living below the poverty line and literacy levels are low.

Every penny of your 2010 donation will help to fund school fees and salaries at the SOS Primary School. The gift of education is a gift for life, empowering pupils to shape their own futures for the better.

We are pleased to report that the 163 pupils are thriving in their studies, and the school which only opened in 2007, is going from strength to strength.

Our sincere thanks again, and warm wishes for a wonderful Christmas and a very happy New Year!

For 60 years, SOS Children has been providing a family for life for children who have lost their parents through conflict, disease, poverty and natural disaster. Over 78,000 orphaned or abandoned children are cared for by SOS mothers in family homes in 505 children's villages, in 124 countries worldwide.

A further million benefit from SOS Children's outreach support which includes education, vocational training, medical care and community development programmes.
